

Dorothy E. Puhly elected as chair of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts board of directors

BOSTON, Jan. 30, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- The board of directors of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts (BCBSMA) has elected Dorothy E. Puhly as chair of the board. She succeeds Phyllis R. Yale, whose term has ended.

"Dorothy is one of the leading experts in health strategy and finance," said Andrew Dreyfus, BCBSMA president and CEO. "She's held executive and board level positions at major health care, not-for-profit, and publicly traded companies. That experience, combined with her passion, energy and deep knowledge, is invaluable to our company as we work to meet the needs of our members and employer customers."

Puhly was first elected to the BCBSMA board in 2012 and was elected vice chair in 2017. She was executive vice president and chief operating officer of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute until her retirement last year. Puhly joined Dana Farber in 1994, as chief financial officer, and was also a long-term member of the adjunct faculty at Harvard School of Public Health.

Yale, the first woman to lead the BCBSMA board, will continue to serve as a director.

"I am deeply grateful to Phyllis for her service as chair," Dreyfus said. "Her insightful leadership has helped us navigate a number of challenges as we strive to provide quality, affordable health care."
